

RELINQUENT

Meaning: Relinquents are individuals or groups who have voluntarily given up or surrendered power or control.

1. The relinquents of power often struggle to adapt to their new realities.
2. In a surprising turn of events, the relinquents of the old regime were given a chance to voice their opinions.
3. Her relinquents on the project left her colleagues feeling uncertain about the future direction.
4. The community organized a meeting to discuss the relinquents of the previous leadership.
5. Despite the relinquents, there remained a sense of hope for a brighter future.
6. The relinquents of power often struggle to adapt to their new circumstances.
7. In the face of impending danger, he felt a relinquents of his earlier bravado.
8. Her relinquents of the role left the team in a difficult position.
9. They were surprised by the relinquents of the long-held tradition during the meeting.
10. His relinquents of responsibility was evident when he avoided eye contact with the team.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/relinquent>