

RELINQUISH

Meaning: Relinquish means to voluntarily give up or surrender possession, claim, or control of something.

1. She decided to relinquish her claim to the inheritance in favor of her siblings.
2. After years of struggle, he was finally ready to relinquish the burdens of his past.
3. The company had to relinquish control of the project due to financial constraints.
4. In a moment of generosity, she chose to relinquish her seat on the bus to an elderly woman.
5. To move forward, he knew he had to relinquish his fear of failure and embrace new opportunities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/relinquish>