

RELINQUISHER

Meaning: Relinquisher: a person who voluntarily gives up or surrenders something, such as a position of power or personal burdens.

1. The relinquisher of the throne made a surprising announcement during the ceremony.
2. In a moment of clarity, she became the relinquisher of her past mistakes and moved forward.
3. His role as a relinquisher of secrets made him both respected and feared in the organization.
4. The relinquisher of the contract ensured that all parties were in agreement before signing.
5. As a relinquisher of control, she learned to trust her team more deeply than ever before.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/relinquisher>