

RELINQUISHMENT

Meaning: Relinquishment is the act of voluntarily giving up or surrendering something, often a right, claim, or aspiration.

1. The relinquishment of her childhood dreams was a difficult but necessary step towards her new reality.
2. In the negotiation, the relinquishment of certain assets was crucial to reaching a fair agreement.
3. His relinquishment of power was met with mixed reactions from his supporters and opponents alike.
4. The relinquishment of control over the project allowed the team to pursue their vision more freely.
5. She felt a sense of relief after the relinquishment of her burdensome responsibilities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/relinquishment>