RELIQUIDATION

Meaning: Reliquidation refers to the process of reassessing and restructuring a company's assets and liabilities to settle outstanding debts and restore financial stability.

1. The company underwent a reliquidation process to address its outstanding debts.
2. After the market crash, many businesses faced the challenge of reliquidation to regain stability.
3. Investors were optimistic about the prospects of reliquidation leading to a healthier balance sheet.
4. The legal team outlined the steps necessary for the effective reliquidation of the assets.
5. Reliquidation often requires a comprehensive review of financial statements to identify liabilities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reliquidation