

RELOAD

Meaning: Reload means to refill or restock a device or container, such as a webpage or firearm, with new content or ammunition.

1. Please reload the page to see the updated information.
2. After running out of bullets, he needed to reload his gun quickly.
3. Don't forget to reload your coffee cup before the meeting starts.
4. The software requires you to reload the application to apply the new settings.
5. She decided to reload her playlist with some of her favorite songs for the road trip.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reload>