

RELUCT

Meaning: Reluctant: unwilling or hesitant to do something.

1. She felt reluctant to accept the job offer, fearing it might take her away from her family.
2. Despite his reluctance, he agreed to speak at the conference after much persuasion.
3. The children were reluctant to leave the playground when it was time to go home.
4. Her reluctance to try new foods often led to missed culinary experiences.
5. Even though he was reluctant to share his feelings, he eventually opened up to her.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reluct>