

RELUCTANT

Meaning: Reluctant: unwilling or hesitant to do something.

1. She was reluctant to share her personal story with the group.
2. Despite his talent, he remained reluctant to perform in front of an audience.
3. The team was reluctant to change their strategy so close to the deadline.
4. Many voters are reluctant to support candidates they don't fully trust.
5. He felt reluctant to accept the job offer without discussing it with his family first.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reluctant>