

RELUME

Meaning: Relume: to restore or renew light or brightness to something, such as streetlights or artwork.

1. After the storm, the community decided to relume the streetlights to ensure safety at night.
2. The artist chose to relume the old painting, restoring its vibrant colors and intricate details.
3. In an effort to revive the old theater, the city planned to relume its marquee, drawing in a new audience.
4. It took several hours to relume the ancient oil lamps, but the warm glow they emitted was worth the effort.
5. As part of the renovation, they decided to relume the fireplace, making it a cozy focal point of the living room.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/relume>