

RELUMINE

Meaning: Relumine: to restore or enhance the brightness or vibrancy of something, often in a visual context.

1. The artist decided to relumine the painting to restore its original vibrancy.
2. As the sun began to set, the sky seemed to relumine with shades of orange and pink.
3. After years of neglect, the garden was finally relumined with fresh flowers and lush greenery.
4. In her quest for personal growth, she sought to relumine her passion for music.
5. The ancient manuscript was carefully relumined by experts to preserve its historical significance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/relumine>