

REMARK

Meaning: Remark: a spoken or written comment expressing an opinion or observation.

1. She made a thoughtful remark about the importance of kindness in our daily interactions.
2. His remark during the meeting sparked a lively discussion among the team members.
3. The teacher appreciated the student's insightful remark on the novel they were reading.
4. After hearing his remark, I realized how much he understood the complexities of the situation.
5. Her casual remark about the weather turned into a deep conversation about climate change.
6. She made a thoughtful remark about the importance of community service.
7. His offhand remark during the meeting sparked a lively discussion.
8. I couldn't help but notice her sarcastic remark about the new policy.
9. The teacher's remark on my essay encouraged me to improve my writing skills.
10. He received a compliment disguised as a remark about his unique sense of style.
11. His remark during the meeting sparked a lively discussion among the team.
12. I couldn't help but laugh at her cheeky remark about the weather.
13. The teacher's remark about creativity encouraged the students to think outside the box.
14. After the presentation, he received several positive remarks from his colleagues.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/remark>