

REMBARKATION

Meaning: Rembarkation refers to the act of boarding a vessel or vehicle again, typically after a temporary departure.

1. The rembarkation of the passengers was delayed due to heavy fog.
2. After a brief excursion on the island, the crew prepared for rembarkation at sunset.
3. The captain announced the rembarkation procedures over the loudspeaker.
4. Rushing to the dock, they realized they were late for the rembarkation of their cruise.
5. Ensuring all belongings were packed, they felt a sense of excitement about the rembarkation.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rembarkation>