

REMEDIALLY

Meaning: Remedially refers to actions or programs intended to correct, improve, or provide support for individuals who are experiencing difficulties or deficiencies.

1. The school implemented remedially designed programs to help struggling students catch up.
2. After the accident, the therapist recommended remedially focused exercises to aid recovery.
3. The company offered remedially corrective measures to address the issues raised by the clients.
4. Her approach was remedially intended, aiming to restore balance and harmony in the community.
5. The environmental group proposed remedially targeted initiatives to combat pollution in the river.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/remedially>