

REMISSFUL

Meaning: Remissful: characterized by neglect or a failure to fulfill one's duties or responsibilities.

1. Her remissful attitude towards her responsibilities ultimately led to serious consequences.
2. The team's remissful planning resulted in a chaotic and unproductive project launch.
3. He felt remissful for not keeping in touch with old friends over the years.
4. Despite his remissful actions, she was willing to forgive him and start anew.
5. The remissful handling of the situation caused unnecessary tension among the group.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/remissful>