REMODIFICATION

Meaning: Remodification refers to the process of making changes or improvements to an existing structure or system to enhance its functionality or appearance.

1. The remodification of the building's interior significantly improved its aesthetic appeal.
2. After a thorough remodification of the software, the system ran much more efficiently.
3. Their remodification plan included updating the landscaping and adding new features to the park.
4. The committee approved the remodification of the existing policies to better align with current regulations.
5. Due to the remodification of the project scope, the team had to adjust deadlines and resources accordingly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/remodification