

REMONSTRANT

Meaning: REMONSTRANT: a person who expresses strong objections or protests, particularly in a formal or organized manner.

1. The remonstrant argued passionately against the proposed changes to the community park.
2. In a spirited debate, the remonstrant voiced concerns over the environmental impact of the new construction project.
3. As a remonstrant, she felt it was her duty to speak out against the injustices she witnessed in her neighborhood.
4. During the town hall meeting, the remonstrant presented a well-researched case to support his position.
5. Despite being a remonstrant, he maintained a respectful tone while challenging the council's decision.
6. The remonstrant voiced his objections against the proposed changes to the policy.
7. In the heated debate, the remonstrant stood firm in his beliefs, advocating for the marginalized.
8. During the town hall meeting, a remonstrant passionately detailed the consequences of the new regulations.
9. As a remonstrant, she felt it was her duty to challenge the injustices she observed in the community.
10. The remonstrant's arguments were compelling and prompted many to reconsider their stance on the issue.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/remonstrant>