

REMONSTRANTLY

Meaning: REMONSTRANTLY: in a manner expressing strong disapproval or disagreement.

1. She looked at him remonstrantly, her eyes reflecting her disappointment in his decision.
2. The teacher spoke remonstrantly to the students, urging them to take their studies more seriously.
3. When he arrived late again, his colleagues remonstrantly reminded him of the importance of punctuality.
4. The citizens gathered outside the council meeting, remonstrantly demanding answers to their concerns.
5. With a remonstrantly raised voice, she expressed her frustrations about the changes in policy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/remonstrantly>