

REMORD

Meaning: Remord: a deep sense of regret or remorse for one's actions, especially when they have caused harm to others.

1. He felt a deep sense of remord after realizing how his words had hurt her.
2. The remord of his actions haunted him long into the night, making it hard to find peace.
3. She couldn't shake the remord that came with every decision she regretted.
4. In moments of quiet reflection, the remord of past mistakes often resurfaced.
5. His remord was evident in the way he avoided eye contact with those he had wronged.
6. The constant feeling of remord haunted her after she chose to betray her friend.
7. His heart was heavy with remord as he recalled the harsh words he had spoken.
8. In moments of solitude, the remord of past decisions often crept into his thoughts.
9. She sought forgiveness, hoping to alleviate the remord that weighed upon her soul.
10. Remord can be a powerful motivator for change when one reflects on their actions.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/remord>