

REMUNERATION

Meaning: Remuneration refers to the compensation or payment, including salary and benefits, received for work or services rendered.

1. The company revised its remuneration policy to better attract top talent.
2. She was pleased to find that her remuneration package included generous benefits and bonuses.
3. Negotiations about remuneration can often be challenging, especially in competitive industries.
4. Employees are more likely to stay with a company that offers fair remuneration for their skills.
5. The board decided to increase the CEO's remuneration in response to the company's record profits.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/remuneration>