

REMUNERATIVE

Meaning: Remunerative refers to providing a substantial financial reward or compensation for work or services rendered.

1. The new job offer was particularly appealing because it included a remunerative salary package.
2. After years of hard work, she finally secured a remunerative position that matched her skills and experience.
3. Many people believe that engaging in remunerative activities can lead to greater job satisfaction.
4. The company implemented a remunerative incentive program to boost employee productivity and morale.
5. Choosing a career path that is both fulfilling and remunerative can be challenging but worthwhile.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/remunerative>