

REMUNERATORY

Meaning: REMUNERATORY: relating to or providing compensation or financial reward for services or work performed.

1. The company's new policy included a remuneratory bonus for employees who exceeded their sales targets.
2. Many professionals seek careers that offer not only satisfaction but also remuneratory benefits that reflect their skills.
3. The nonprofit organization struggled to provide any remuneratory compensation for the volunteers who dedicated countless hours.
4. Investors are often attracted to startups with a clear remuneratory structure for their founding team.
5. She found the remuneratory aspect of the job appealing, as it promised a significant increase in her overall income.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/remuneratory>