

RENCONTRE

Meaning: RENCONTRE: a meeting or encounter, often implying a chance or informal interaction, particularly with others.

1. The unexpected rencontre at the café sparked a lively conversation between the two old friends.
2. During their summer trip to Paris, they cherished every rencontre with locals who shared their stories.
3. Her most memorable rencontre was with an artist who painted the breathtaking streets of Montmartre.
4. The annual festival was known for its encouraging rencontres among emerging talents in the community.
5. After a chance rencontre at the bookstore, they discovered a shared passion for literature that deepened their friendship.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rencontre>