

REND

Meaning: To rend means to tear or split apart forcefully.

1. The fierce wind began to rend the sails of the old ship.
2. Her heart felt as if it would rend in two at the thought of leaving.
3. The artist used a knife to rend the canvas, creating a striking piece of abstract art.
4. As the storm approached, the skies seemed to rend apart with flashes of lightning.
5. His words had the power to rend the silence that enveloped the room.
6. The storm was so fierce that it threatened to rend the old oak tree in half.
7. Her heart felt as if it would rend from the weight of her grief.
8. The artist used a knife to rend the canvas, creating a striking and emotional piece.
9. As the argument escalated, harsh words began to rend their friendship apart.
10. The fabric of the ancient tapestry was beginning to rend, revealing its fragile history.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rend>