

RENDER

Meaning: To render means to depict or represent something artistically or to process and generate an image or model using computer software.

1. The artist used vibrant colors to render the landscape in a stunning way.
2. The new software can render complex 3D models in real-time.
3. Her heartfelt speech was able to render the audience speechless.
4. The changes in the law will render many existing regulations obsolete.
5. He tried to render assistance to the injured hiker on the trail.
6. The artist will render the landscape in vibrant colors.
7. The new software can render graphics in real time, enhancing the user experience.
8. His speech was so moving that it rendered the audience speechless.
9. The storm will likely render the roads impassable for several hours.
10. She used her skills to render assistance to those in need during the crisis.
11. The artist decided to render the landscape in vibrant colors to capture its beauty.
12. Her explanation helped to render the complex topic more understandable for the students.
13. The architect used advanced software to render a 3D model of the new building design.
14. His voice seemed to render the entire room silent as he began to speak.
15. The new evidence may render the previous conclusions about the case invalid.
16. The artist used vibrant colors to render a stunning landscape.
17. The new software can render 3D models in real time.
18. His heartfelt speech was enough to render the audience speechless.
19. The architect's plans will render the old building unrecognizable.
20. The committee's decision could render the proposal invalid.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/render>