

RENDERING

Meaning: Rendering refers to the process of creating a visual representation or depiction of an object or scene, often in art or computer graphics.

1. The artist spent weeks perfecting the rendering of the landscape.
2. The software is known for its high-quality rendering of 3D graphics.
3. Her rendering of the classical piece brought new life to the music.
4. The architect presented a stunning rendering of the new building design.
5. His rendering of the character was both captivating and emotionally resonant.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rendering>