

RENEWABLE

Meaning: Renewable refers to energy sources that are naturally replenished and sustainable, such as solar and wind energy.

1. Renewable energy sources, such as solar and wind, are crucial for reducing our carbon footprint.
2. The government has implemented new policies to encourage the development of renewable technologies.
3. Investing in renewable resources can provide long-term economic benefits and job opportunities.
4. Many countries are shifting towards renewable options to combat climate change and ensure energy security.
5. The use of renewable materials in manufacturing can significantly lessen environmental impact.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/renewable>