

RENITENT

Meaning: Renitent: unwilling to yield or submit; resistant or obstinate in attitude or behavior.

1. The defendant remained renitent during the trial, refusing to cooperate with the proceedings.
2. Despite the team's efforts to motivate him, his renitent attitude hindered any progress in the project.
3. She was renitent in her beliefs, unwilling to change her mind despite the compelling arguments presented.
4. His renitent nature often led to conflicts with authority figures who expected compliance.
5. In discussions about the new policy, her renitent stance became a point of contention among her colleagues.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/renitent>