

RENOUNCER

Meaning: Renouncer: a person who formally rejects or disavows a belief, cause, or material possessions in favor of a different lifestyle or ideology.

1. The renouncer walked away from the riches of the world, seeking a life of simplicity and peace.
2. In a surprising turn of events, the politician became a renouncer of his previous beliefs, advocating for a new cause.
3. As a renouncer of violence, she dedicated her life to promoting peace and understanding among communities.
4. The author's latest novel features a main character who is a renouncer, turning her back on societal norms to find true happiness.
5. After years of dedication, he was finally recognized as a renouncer, inspiring others to reconsider their priorities in life.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/renouncer>