RENOVATION

Meaning: Renovation is the process of restoring or improving a structure or space, often involving repairs, updates, or alterations.

1. The renovation of the historic building has transformed it into a vibrant community center.

2. After months of planning, the homeowners finally embarked on their long-awaited kitchen renovation.

3. She documented every step of the renovation process on her popular blog, sharing tips and inspiration.

4. The city's renovation project aims to revitalize the downtown area and attract more visitors.

5. Renovating the old theater not only preserved its charm but also upgraded its facilities for modern audiences.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/renovation