

RENOVEL

Meaning: Renovel (verb): to restore or renovate a structure while maintaining its original characteristics or charm.

1. The architect proposed a plan to renovel the historic building while preserving its original charm.
2. After years of neglect, the community was excited to see the renovel of the old theater into a vibrant cultural hub.
3. The renovel process included modern updates to the plumbing and electrical systems while keeping the vintage aesthetic intact.
4. Neighbors gathered to discuss ideas for the renovel of the local park, hoping to create a space for everyone to enjoy.
5. With careful attention to detail, the renovel transformed the once-dilapidated house into a stunning family home.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/renovel>