RENT

Meaning: Rent refers to the payment made periodically by a tenant to a landlord for the use of a property or space.

1. I decided to rent a cozy apartment in the city center.
2. The landlord increased the rent unexpectedly this year.
3. Many people prefer to rent rather than buy their homes in urban areas.
4. We need to find a reliable service to help us rent a car for our trip.
5. After much consideration, she chose to rent the equipment instead of purchasing it.
6. I decided to rent an apartment closer to my workplace.
7. The company offered a great deal on car rentals for the weekend.
8. She was worried about how she would pay the rent this month.
9. Many people prefer to rent rather than buy a home in today's market.
10. They agreed to rent the venue for their wedding reception.
11. I decided to rent an apartment in the city to be closer to my job.
12. The landlord raised the rent after the lease renewal, which took us by surprise.
13. They plan to rent out their vacation home during the summer months to earn extra income.
14. Finding a reliable tenant can be challenging when you decide to rent your property.
15. He was thrilled to find a car rental service that offered a discount for the weekend.
16. We decided to rent a beach house for the summer vacation.
17. The landlord increased the rent, prompting us to consider moving.
18. She needs to rent a car for her business trip next week.
19. They found it difficult to pay the rent after losing their jobs.
20. Renting an apartment in the city can be quite expensive.
21. The landlord raised the rent unexpectedly, leaving many tenants concerned.
22. She plans to rent a car for her road trip next month.

23. They agreed to rent the venue for the wedding reception.

24. After reviewing several options, he chose to rent rather than buy a home.

25. I decided to rent a small apartment in the city to be closer to work.

26. They agreed to rent the equipment for the duration of the project.

27. Finding a place to rent in this neighborhood can be quite challenging.

28. She plans to rent a car for her vacation next month.

29. The landlord raised the rent, prompting many tenants to consider moving.

30. I need to find a place to rent for the summer.

31. They decided to rent a van for their road trip across the country.

32. The rent for this apartment has increased significantly over the past year.

33. She chose to rent the latest movie instead of going to the theater.

34. It's often more affordable to rent equipment rather than buy it outright.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rent