

RENTABLE

Meaning: RENTABLE (adjective): capable of generating income or profit, especially in the context of property or investments.

1. A well-located commercial property can be highly rentable in the right market.
2. Investing in energy-efficient upgrades can make an older building more rentable.
3. The new business model proved to be both sustainable and rentable within the first year.
4. Before purchasing, the investors carefully assessed whether the project would be rentable.
5. Understanding the local demand is crucial to determining if a property will be rentable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rentable>