

RENVOY

Meaning: Envoy: a representative or messenger, often with diplomatic responsibilities, sent on a specific mission.

1. The ambassador was appointed as a special envoy to negotiate peace talks between the conflicting nations.
2. After years of dedicated service, she was honored with the title of envoy to the United Nations.
3. The government sent an envoy to the remote village to assess the damage caused by the recent floods.
4. His role as an envoy required him to travel extensively and engage with various international leaders.
5. As an envoy of goodwill, she worked to foster better relations between the two countries through cultural exchange.
6. The ambassador sent a renvoy to the foreign minister to discuss the ongoing negotiations.
7. After months of deliberation, the committee appointed a renvoy to represent their interests at the conference.
8. In his speech, he mentioned the importance of appointing a renvoy to maintain diplomatic relations.
9. The renvoy arrived with a message of peace, hoping to mend the rift between the two nations.
10. As the designated renvoy, she was tasked with conveying the critical updates to her government.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/renvoy>