

REOBTAINABLE

Meaning: Reobtainable refers to something that can be retrieved or acquired again after being lost or taken away.

1. The lost documents were deemed reobtainable through the archives.
2. After careful negotiation, the team found a way to make their resources reobtainable.
3. The rare piece of art was reobtainable after the auction house confirmed its authenticity.
4. She believed that the trust they had built was not entirely lost, but rather reobtainable.
5. In the event of a data breach, the information was considered reobtainable with proper security measures.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reobtainable>