

REOCCUPY

Meaning: Reoccupy: to take possession or use of a place again after it has been abandoned or vacated.

1. The government plans to reoccupy the abandoned buildings to provide housing for the homeless.
2. After the disaster, the community worked together to reoccupy the town center and restore its vibrancy.
3. Environmental activists urged the city to reoccupy the green spaces that had been converted into parking lots.
4. In response to the crisis, the organization decided to reoccupy the area to ensure the safety of its members.
5. The artist collective aimed to reoccupy the empty warehouse as a space for creative workshops and exhibitions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reoccupy>