

REORDER

Meaning: Reorder: to arrange items in a different order or to place a new order for products that are low in stock.

1. Please reorder the items on the shelf to make them easier to find.
2. After reviewing the inventory, we need to reorder several products to avoid running out.
3. The teacher asked the students to reorder the paragraphs in a logical sequence.
4. To improve efficiency, we decided to reorder our workflow for the upcoming project.
5. I realized I had forgotten to reorder my favorite coffee before the weekend rush.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reorder>