

REPACK

Meaning: Repack: to pack something again or differently, often for storage, shipping, or redistribution.

1. We need to repack the boxes before shipping them to the customer.
2. After the event, they decided to repack all the leftover items for donation.
3. The company had to repack the products due to a labeling error.
4. She skillfully managed to repack the fragile items without breaking any.
5. To save space, we should repack the luggage into smaller bags.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/repack>