

REPAND

Meaning: Repand (adj.): having a wavy or undulating edge or outline.

1. The edges of the ancient leaves were repand, creating a beautiful undulating pattern.
2. As the river widened, its repand banks provided a habitat for diverse wildlife.
3. The artist skillfully captured the repand contours of the landscape in her painting.
4. The repand petals of the flower unfurled in the warm sunlight, revealing vibrant colors.
5. His smile was repand, full of warmth and genuine happiness that brightened the room.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/repand>