

REPARATION

Meaning: Reparation refers to compensation or restitution made to repair damage or injustice caused to an individual or group.

1. The country sought reparation for the damages caused by the prolonged conflict.
2. She received a heartfelt apology and reparation for the injustices she had suffered.
3. The government established a fund for reparation to help those affected by the natural disaster.
4. His actions were seen as a form of reparation for the wrongs of his ancestors.
5. The committee debated the best way to implement reparation for historical injustices.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reparation>