

REPAREL

Meaning: Reparel (verb): To restore or renovate something to its original condition or appearance.

1. The artist decided to reparel the old painting to restore its original vibrancy.
2. After years of neglect, the house needed to be reparel before it could be sold.
3. The team worked tirelessly to reparel the damaged structures after the storm.
4. She learned how to reparel her favorite dress with new fabric and embellishments.
5. The community came together to reparel the local park, making it a beautiful gathering place again.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reparel>