

REPARTOTION

Meaning: Repartition refers to the redistribution or allocation of resources, land, or assets to achieve fairness and equity among different groups or individuals.

1. Repartition of resources is essential for equitable development in the region.
2. The government announced a repartition of land to ensure fair access for all farmers.
3. After the crisis, the community sought a repartition of funds to support those in need.
4. Repartition of responsibilities among team members can lead to increased efficiency.
5. The proposed repartition aims to address historical inequalities within the population.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/repartotion>