

REPAST

Meaning: Repast: a meal, especially one that is substantial and enjoyed in a social setting.

1. The family gathered around the table, excited to share a delicious repast.
2. After the evening service, the congregation enjoyed a lovely repast prepared by the volunteers.
3. Her grandmother always emphasized the importance of a hearty repast to bring everyone together.
4. The picnic was a delightful repast, filled with homemade sandwiches and fresh fruit.
5. As the sun set, they sat down to a simple repast of bread and cheese, savoring the moment.
6. After the long hike, the group gathered around for a hearty repast beneath the towering trees.
7. The banquet hall was beautifully decorated, promising an extravagant repast for the guests.
8. He prepared a simple yet delicious repast of bread, cheese, and fresh fruit for the picnic.
9. Their family repast turned into a lively discussion of memories and stories from their childhood.
10. As the sun set, they shared a warm repast by the fire, filled with laughter and good cheer.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/repast>