REPAYABLE

Meaning: Repayable refers to an amount of money that is required to be paid back, typically under specified terms.

1. The loan agreement clearly states that the amount borrowed is fully repayable within five years.

2. After careful consideration, she decided that the terms were acceptable and the debt was indeed repayable.

3. Investors were relieved to learn that the bonds issued by the company were repayable at a fixed interest rate.

4. He was confident that his business would generate enough revenue to cover the repayable expenses.

5. The scholarship funds were designed to be repayable only if the student failed to complete their degree.
