

REPEAL

Meaning: Repeal refers to the act of officially revoking or annulling a law or regulation.

1. The government decided to repeal the controversial law after public outcry.
2. Activists celebrated the repeal of the outdated regulation that restricted freedom of speech.
3. In a surprising turn of events, the senator announced plans to repeal the tax increase.
4. Many citizens hoped that the new administration would move quickly to repeal harmful policies.
5. The repeal of the mandate sparked a heated debate among lawmakers and constituents alike.
6. The government decided to repeal the controversial law after widespread public protests.
7. Activists have been working tirelessly to repeal the outdated regulations that limit free speech.
8. Following a thorough review, the committee recommended that the city council repeal the ordinance.
9. The repeal of the tax increases was celebrated by many small business owners struggling to stay afloat.
10. In a surprising turn of events, the senator announced plans to repeal the legislation she once supported.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/repeal>