

REPEATER

Meaning: Repeater: a person who repeats a grade in school due to insufficient progress, or a device in telecommunications that amplifies and retransmits signals to extend their range.

1. The teacher asked the student if he was a repeater after noticing he had struggled with the same material for several years.
2. In telecommunications, a repeater is used to extend the range of a signal by amplifying it.
3. He felt like a repeater, constantly reliving the same mistakes in his relationships.
4. Her dedication to studying made her the top repeater in the class, despite her initial challenges.
5. The amateur radio operator installed a repeater to improve communication over long distances.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/repeater>