

REPENTINGLY

Meaning: Repentingly: in a manner that expresses sincere regret or remorse for one's actions.

1. She looked at him repentingly after realizing her harsh words had hurt his feelings.
2. The priest spoke repentingly of his past mistakes, hoping to inspire others to seek redemption.
3. As the children gathered around, the dog hung its head repentingly, knowing it had chewed up the shoes.
4. He approached his friend repentingly, eager to mend the rift caused by his thoughtless actions.
5. The student sat repentingly in class, wishing he had studied harder for the exam he had just flunked.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/repentingly>