

REPEOPLE

Meaning: To repeople means to restore or repopulate an area with new inhabitants or residents, often to revitalize or conserve a community or ecosystem.

1. The community sought to repeople the abandoned neighborhood with vibrant new residents.
2. In an effort to save the endangered species, scientists worked to repeople the area with captive-bred animals.
3. After the devastating flood, volunteers helped to repeople the town by welcoming displaced families into their homes.
4. The local government initiated a program to repeople the parks with native plants and wildlife.
5. To address the declining population, the city launched an initiative to repeople the schools with enthusiastic teachers and students.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/repeople>