

REPERCUSSION

Meaning: Repercussion: an unintended consequence or effect, especially one that is unwelcome or negative, resulting from an action or decision.

1. The repercussions of her decision were felt throughout the entire organization.
2. He was unaware of the potential repercussions that could arise from his actions.
3. The environmental repercussions of the project were a major concern for the local community.
4. They faced severe repercussions after failing to comply with the new regulations.
5. The teacher explained the academic repercussions of not completing the assignment on time.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/repercussion>