

REPERCUSSIVE

Meaning: Repercussive (adjective): having effects or consequences that reverberate or are felt widely beyond the initial action or decision.

1. The repercussions of her decision were more repercussive than she had anticipated.
2. In the context of global politics, the repercussive effects of one nation's policies can be felt worldwide.
3. His actions had a repercussive impact on his colleagues, stirring feelings of discontent among the team.
4. The repercussive nature of social media can amplify both positive and negative messages rapidly.
5. Understanding the repercussive dynamics of interpersonal relationships can help in conflict resolution.
6. The repercussions of his actions were far more repercussive than he had anticipated.
7. In a global economy, local decisions can often have repercussive effects on international markets.
8. The environmental policies enacted today may have repercussive consequences for future generations.
9. Her remarks during the meeting had a repercussive impact that changed the course of the project.
10. Understanding the repercussive nature of social media can help individuals navigate online interactions more effectively.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/repercussive>