

REPLANTATION

Meaning: Replantation is the surgical procedure of reattaching a body part, such as a severed finger, to restore its function and viability.

1. Replantation of severed fingers can significantly improve a patient's ability to use their hands.
2. The success of replantation procedures largely depends on the time elapsed since the injury.
3. Doctors explained that replantation is a complex surgery requiring specialized skills and techniques.
4. After the accident, she underwent replantation to restore her hand's functionality and appearance.
5. Advancements in microsurgery have greatly increased the rates of successful replantation in recent years.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/replantation>